Law Enforcement partners,

Recently, Memphis Mayor Jim Strickland highlighted the wonderful partnership between the U.S. Attorney's Office and the Memphis Police Department in his June 1, 2018 Weekly Update newsletter. Because the Mayor's update included significant statistical data that shows a reduction of violent crime in Memphis, I forwarded a copy of it to the Department of Justice in Washington, D.C., to report the news about our good work and good outcomes.

As you can see from the attachments, Attorney General Jeff Sessions reviewed the Mayor's Weekly Update, printed and made handwritten notes and underlines on the same, and sent back to me a very encouraging letter. I thought I would share it with you, because together we truly are reducing crime, making progress, and saving lives.

Thanks to all of you for your hard work and dedication in our collective public safety efforts in Memphis and across West Tennessee.
